Leader: As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

People: My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?

Leader: These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng and led them in procession to the house of God with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving.

People: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall praise him, my help and my God.

Leader: By day the Lord commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

All: Hope in God, for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

Like as the hart desireth the waterbrooks, so longeth my soul after thee, O God. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God. When shall I come to appear before the presence of God? My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

SILENT REFLECTION

OFFERING OF GIFTS There is a Balm in Gilead - arr. by William Dawson

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole;
There is a balm in Gilead, to heal the sin-sick soul.

Some times I feel discouraged, and think my work's in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

If you cannot sing like angels, if you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus, and say "He died for all."

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Vespers Funding Needed

The funding for the Tuesday night Vespers dinner is running dry. Donations are needed to keep this vital FBC ministry to the homeless alive. The fact that the homeless and hungry in our community are drawn to First Baptist for hospitality is evidence of God's grace at work—both in our lives and in the lives of those He draws to us. We are all well aware of the incapacity of our present system to provide the needed services and affordable housing that this very vulnerable population needs. Many have been through the shelter system and have come out with no placement in housing, no job, and no prospects. Through the Vespers ministry our church offers a weekly meal and the support of caring people who listen, pray for them, and offer whatever assistance we can. I have corresponded with Rev. Margaret Shafer, whose church, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian in New York, runs a private shelter for the homeless. Rev. Shafer writes: "Once I asked an outreach worker from the Volunteers of America what he thought a church could possibly do to help such people. He said, 'The best thing you can do is be the church.' Be the church! Imagine! 'Pray for these folks and help them know that someone cares. Be the community that they do not have. Until they feel valued, they will not value themselves enough to go through the frustration of getting help.'" Vespers at FBC is a ministry of presence and a ministry of simply helping the homeless to feel valued. We hope you will join us! Come for dinner at 5:30 pm any Tuesday and meet some of our guests. The kitchen staff is also in need of help with cleanup after the meal. We also ask for prayer for homeless people and those in our community who are serving them. Please contact Sarah Heidt (734-730-5484 or sheidt@emich.edu) if you have questions about this program and how you can get involved.

Small Groups (ChristCare)

Centered on Bible study, fellowship, mission, prayer and worship, we currently have two groups: one which meets monthly and the other which meets every other week. See Stacey, Paul or Sue Ellen for more information about joining a group.

Take Us Out to the Ballgame!

The youth are headed to a Toledo Mud Hens game on Wednesday, July 28th. The game begins at 7, so we would need to leave here around 5:30. Tickets are $5 for youth and a friend (rising seventh graders and up), but everyone in the church family is invited! Non-youth tickets are $10. We do need your money to verify your commitment before we buy tickets so someone will be near the Information Counter on June 20th and June 27th to take your reservation. The deadline will be June 27th. Hope you can join us! If you have any questions, see Beth Foster or Bob Kidd.

Art Fair Parking Lot Volunteers Needed!

The Art Fairs will soon be here – and once again we are renting out the church parking lot to raise funds for the Youth program and our Sister Church in Nicaragua. Many volunteers are needed to supervise the lot. Please sign up at the Information Counter. You will be helping to raise over $2000 for our Youth and for our Sister Church in Nandasmo. In addition to our gratitude, volunteers "earn" a free half-day parking spot to be used any time during the Fairs!

Church Picnic, July 11, noon – 2:00, Allmendinger Park

Join us for lunch, games, prizes and lots of FUN! Please sign up at the Information Counter, indicating which dish you are bringing to share and the number of people who plan to attend. The Board of Christian Education will provide drinks and chicken. (We are only able to transport a few chairs and tables from the church, so please bring your own chairs or blankets if possible.)
